Business:

• Old Business

The swap meet went well the club made $40.00 from people getting tables and the boat club did ok too. We will keep the boat club in the loop of upcoming event that we can both be involed in. Barb said that next year we should pay to take out an add in the paper to get more people to come.

Dave said he made $428.00 from selling Larry's stuff witch is going to the club and Frank is going to try to sell the rest on ebay.

Dave reported the he updated the clubs computer and he did a mock race in his driveway and it ran fine.

Camp Villages is comming up on June 27th. We will have 12 kids again so we need 12 club members with nascars to volenter to be there and we also need club members to come down and help with marshaling. Dave will be sending out emails.

- New Business.

The point series will be extended till novemberand we will take off June and July, we willl have three drops. One after 5 races the next after the 10th race and the 3rd befor the last race day.

Frank asked that the members that assemble the track if you use a drill PLEASE set the clutch to a low setting the nuts are getting stripped out from being over tightend.
